Oh no, I've just had an accident!!!

What do I do?

Take the stress out of the claims process
and collect information on the spot!

A simple guide to follow in an event of a motor accident.
Keep this information booklet handy in your car.

Do you know what should happen next?

If you have the misfortune to be involved in a car accident, we hope this booklet will provide a useful guide to the correct procedures you should follow and help you protect your interests.

Firstly

Is anyone injured?

- Attend to injured person
- Call 111 for police and ambulance as soon as possible.

Secondly

- DO NOT ACCEPT LIABILITY
- DO NOT make any statements to anyone except proper authorities or an authorised representative of your insurer.

Know your legal obligations

- If you collide with another vehicle you must stop, see if anyone is injured and render assistance accordingly.
- If injury is involved, you must report the incident to the police within 24 hours.
- Protect your vehicle to prevent further loss or damage and remove your personal possessions from your vehicle.
- For minor accidents, drivers should exchange names, addresses, insurance company particulars and vehicle registration numbers.

How to Proceed with a Claim

- 1 Complete the attached accident report card, getting as many details as possible at the time of the accident.
- 2 Contact PIC Insurance Brokers for a claim form or simply visit our website and go to claims www.pic.co.nz/claims
